We respectfully request our friends to send in their Advertisements as early in the week as convenient; and if possible, let us have them by Thursday evening. SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 6, 1867.

South Carolina University.
The first public play of this noble State Institution was Saturday last, 29th ult., upon which occasion, Messrs. L. B. BATES, W. T. C. BATES, D. Z. DANTZLER and F. W. DANTZLER, of this District, received certificates of Graduation in the School of History and Political Economy. In the Junior Classes of other Schools, Distinctions were conferred upon the following young gentlemen from Orangeburg, viz:
School of Ancient Languages—L. B. BATES and D. Z. DANTZLER.
School of Rhetoric and English Literature—A. D. FAIR.
School of Mathematics and Engineering—D. Z. DANTZLER and F. W. DANTZLER.
School of Natural Philosophy—D. Z. DANTZLER.
School of Chemistry, &c.—L. B. BATES, W. T. C. BATES and F. W. DANTZLER.

We are under obligations to Mr. JAMES CANNON, Proprietor of the well known Cannon House, for a bottle of fine old Brandy, to which, if we were called upon to name it, we would give the sobriquet of "JUST THE VERY BEST."

Mr. CANNON, in compliance with the orders issued by "Daniel from the Lion's Den," has fitted up a neat and convenient Bar in the basement of his Hotel, where he will keep as fine a stock of Liquors of all kinds as ever were offered in this place.

Those of our readers who desire a cool and invigorating Temperance Drink, are invited to call upon our friend HUBBELL at the Postoffice, where he is prepared to furnish Iced Soda Water at the moderate price of ten cents a glass, or three glasses for twenty-five cents. We have long needed a Soda Fountain in Orangeburg, and this desideratum being now supplied by our worthy Postmaster, we bespeak for him a liberal patronage.

We would call special attention to a new Syrup, composed of rare and choice ingredients, which our friends say is excellent—the Rainbow Syrup, which can be furnished at a slight advance in price over the usual flavoring extracts, and is said to be well worth the difference.

Our Fourth.
The day in this town was celebrated by the Comet Fire Engine Company, with a parade and barbecue, which passed off in the most satisfactory and agreeable manner.

The Aiken Press.
We have received the first number of this new weekly, which fully realizes in its appearance the promises of its Prospectus. May a long and useful career be before it; and we trust that the day may not be distant, when it will be published in the centre of a new District, bearing the name of Carolina's greatest statesman.

New Advertisements.
Attention is called to the card of Mr. MAX WAGNER, in our columns to-day.
See Notice of Tax Collector, Orange Parish.
See Internal Revenue Notice, Annual List for 1867. The law attaches additional amounts to the tax unless paid on or before the first of August.
The regular Convocation of the Eureka Chapter No. 13, R. A. M., will be held at this on the 27th inst. See Notice.
Our readers will see by reference to our advertising columns, that Dr. THOMAS A. ELLIOTT and Dr. ALEXANDER S. SALLEY have formed a Copartnership for the practice of Medicine in Orangeburg and vicinity. We would also call the attention of Debtors to either of the above named gentlemen, to their Notice in this issue.

The attention of our readers is invited to the Notice of Mr. JOHN DAVIS, Agent of Bureau Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands. He desires information in regard to the disabled freedmen of our District.

OBITUARY.

DIED—At his residence near Rowe's Pump, May 24th 1867, ELVIN E. FUNCHESS, aged 44 years, 8 months and 22 days. "Blessed are the dead, which die in the Lord."

DIED—June 21st, 1867, of Cholera Infantum, CHARLES FORD, only child of W. S. and E. C. BARTON, aged four months and ten days.

"Rest, little baby, rest,
Not in thy cradle bed,
Not in thy mother's breast,
But with the silent dead."

Charlie, little bird of beauty, thou wast too pure, too lovely, to live in this cold world. How sad and lonely do we feel, since thy infant smiles no longer gladden our hearts! Darling baby! we would not have thee back, if we could, from that bright abode to which a kind Saviour has called thee, one of His own chosen little ones, to dwell with Him forever. When, for the last time, we looked in that little coffin at thy pale face, tears were shed, not for thee, precious lamb! but for thy weeping parents. Dear little Charlie is now resting in the bosom of Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbear them, not for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

The Merchants' and Manufacturers'

Jewelry Association

Calls your attention to the fact of its being the largest and most popular Jewelry Association in the United States. The business is and always has been conducted in the most candid and honorable manner. Our rapidly increasing trade is a sure guarantee of the appreciation of our patrons for this method of obtaining rich, elegant and costly goods. The sudden stagnation of trade in Europe, owing to the late German war, and recent disastrous financial crisis in Europe, has caused the failure of a large number of Jewelry houses in London and Paris, obliging them to sell their goods at a great sacrifice, in some instances less than one-third the cost of manufacturing. We have lately purchased very largely of these bankrupt goods, at such extremely low prices that we can afford to send away finer goods, and give better chances to draw the most valuable prizes than any other establishment doing a similar business. Our aim is to PLEASE, and we respectfully solicit your patronage, as we are confident of giving the utmost satisfaction. During the past year we have forwarded a number of the most valuable prizes to all parts of the country. Those who patronize us will receive the full value of their money, as no article on our list is worth less than One Dollar, retail, and there are no blanks. Parties dealing with us may depend on having prompt returns, and the article drawn will be immediately sent to any address by return mail or express.

The following parties have recently drawn valuable prizes from the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Jewelry Association, and have kindly allowed use of their names:

Frederick V. Browne, Esq., Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. Piano, value, $450; Miss Anna I. Frost, Waverly Terrace, N.
